Hospital bonds offered to public

A $28.5 million bond issue that will finance construction of additions and upgrading of St. Elizabeth Hospital will be offered for sale to the public, it was announced Friday.

The issue of Hospital Facility Revenue Bonds issued by the city of Granite City will be offered for sale through John Nuveen & Co., Inc. which heads the underwriting group handling the bond sales.

Funds generated by sale of the bonds will make possible a series of hospital improvements and will create 172 new jobs for area residents.

Bonds will be available in denominations of $5,000 at interest rates varying from 3 percent to 7 percent, depending upon maturity date.

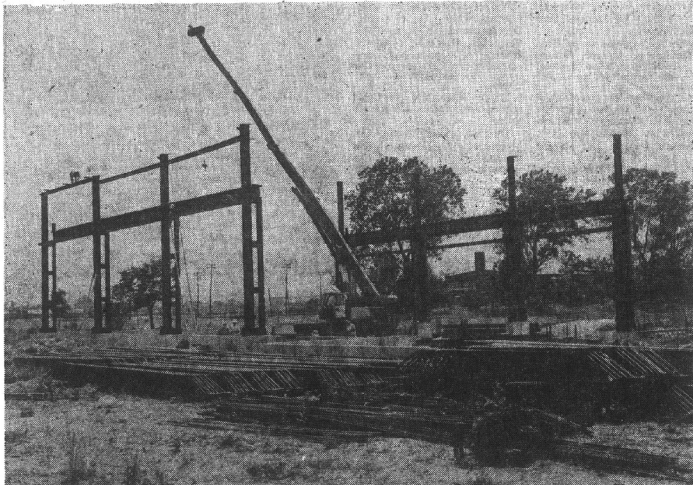

The bonds are designed to be of particular interest to individual investors seeking fixed income free from federal income taxes, authorities said. John Nuveen & Co. representatives said that a prospectus and other information about the issue may be obtained by writing to its Chicago headquarters, 209 South LaSalle St., Chicago 60604.

Among the expansion projects is a unit housing the hospital's new Total Body Scanner, a half-million dollar piece of equipment which provides advanced diagnostic capabilities via computer analysis. Through its use, St. Elizabeth medical staff members are able to examine deep brain and organ structures with minimal amounts of radiation.

Also planned is a new 50-bed psychiatric facility for the hospital, which is the sole provider of hospital services in its area, a region with approximately 67,500 population.

Other expanded facilities will include the medical records department, X-ray unit, food service area, emergency room, and radiology department.

New construction will include a medical library, the new psychiatric unit, a power plant, and other ancillary facilities.

STEEL ERECTION BEGINS at new fabricating plant of the Southwestern Steel Supply Co. at Maerz Industrial Park, Madison. The $2 million plant, financed with bonds sold by the city of Madison, is being built on eight acres of land and is expected to be ready for occupancy in six months. When in operation, the new industry will hire approximately 85 employees. Burglar alarm cost mounts

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

A uniform citywide burglar alarm system in Granite City capable of monitoring 600 homes and businesses, may be in operation in the near future with few, if any, customers.

What was originally proposed as a system homeowners could rent and use for about $10 per month has skyrocketed to where proposed monthly bills now will be $15.20 per month and initial installation could cost up to $132.

The city also wants an unspecified amount per year, probably about $10, for issuing "an alarm user permit."

Efforts are being organized to urge Illinois Bell Telephone Co. to decrease its proposed charges to burglar alarm users and several officials and groups have said the telephone line installation charges and flat monthly rate are primarily responsible for the price increase. The proposed alarms require a separate telephone line from each building served.

They are going to kill this thing before we ever get it off the ground," Chief of Police Ronald J. Vetter of Granite City told the Press-Record Friday.

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk has accused the phone company of raising the cost of burglar alarms beyond where most people, particularly senior citizens, can afford to have the protection of a burglar alarm.

The Madison-Venice Rotary Club also has gone on record opposing the flat monthly fee of $10.20, including tax, the company is charging burglar alarm users in Madison, contending the new fee schedule for burglar alarm services is, in some instances, a 350 percent increase over what was previously charged for a regular telephone line.

The Chamber of Commerce of the Tri-Cities plans to call a joint meeting next week of the Chamber Executive Board and the mayors of Granite City, Madison and Venice to discuss the problem and possibly to author a letter to the phone company or the Illinois Commerce Commission in opposition to high phone rates for burglar alarm service.

The phone company plans to charge $72, including tax, to install a new telephone line to a Granite City house or building for burglar alarm service. That fee first was proposed at $60, but in the last two weeks has been increased to $72.

Customers then will have to pay $10.20 per month, tax included, for use of the telephone line, under the proposal.

Burglar alarm users also will have to pay a monthly rental of $5 for use of burglar alarm equipment compatible with the city's proposed control panel. The alarm company, Controlled Security Systems, will install the home systems free of charge for those who sign up in the first 90 days the systems are offered, but then will charge $60 for installation to those signing up after the 90-day period.

With the cost already mounting beyond where many residents can afford the burglar alarms, the Granite City Council now is considering an ordinance controlling the use of burglar alarms and providing for a alarm users permit and a fee for that permit.

The space for the fee on the ordinance is blank, but some

Court action due over tax collections

A suit is to be filed today or tomorrow in Madison County Circuit Court in Edwardsville seeking to prevent Madison County Tax Collector George Musso from mailing tax bills directly to taxpayers, bypassing the township tax collectors.

Nine township tax collectors, including the four Quad-City area collectors, decided Friday to instruct attorney M. Joseph Hill of Edwardsville, who practices in Granite City, to file suit seeking a temporary restraining order preventing Musso or his staff from mailing tax bills directly to taxpayers.

The decision to seek the injunction was reached after the nine collectors and Hill conferred on Musso's office Friday demanding to know why the tax books had not been released to them and to ask if the county is preparing tax bills to be mailed directly to taxpayers.

Hill commented "Musso is out of town until June 23 (Thursday) and nobody in his office would tell us anything."

He said simple questions to Musso's assistants, such as, "Are you now preparing the tax bills?" met with answers such as, "I don't know," and "No comment."

Unable to get any answers at Musso's office, the collectors then went to the office of Madison County State's Attorney Nicholas G. Byrnes, who is the legal adviser for Musso's office, Hill said.

He added Byrnes told him Don Smith, assistant state's attorney, was advising Musso's office on tax collection matters. Smith was summoned and told the collectors Musso has received answers to all of his legal questions, but Smith declined to reveal what advice he has given Musso, terming him a "client."

Hill contended Musso has threatened in previous years to bypass the township collectors and at one point last year, Musso was summoned and told the collectors Musso was ready to file suit to bar direct county collection of taxes.

Hill speculated Musso may have arranged it so tax collection by his staff would begin while he was out of town at a convention or vacation, so the township collectors would not be able to speak to him prior to the start of tax collection.

Hill also said he believes Musso's staff is preparing the tax bills with specific instructions to each bill to remit the taxes due directly to the county collector's office, rather than to the township collectors.

Collectors who went to Edwardsville Friday were Nick Petrillo of Granite City Township, Richard Peck of Nameoki Township, Charles Loxow of Chouteau Township and Jerry Maerz of Venice Township.

The township collectors contend that if the county collects taxes, the funds will be invested in interest-bearing savings accounts prior to distribution and the county will receive the interest from the banks.

"We know from experience that the disbursements of taxes from the county collector normally takes about a month

St. Clair tops Madison County in 'influence'

(Fourth of a series on politics in Madison County)

Although there currently is a federal investigation into activities by sheriff deputies in Madison County, this county is much better run governmentally than are most agencies in St. Clair County in terms of investigations, indictments, trials, convictions and sentences involving public officials.

Nevertheless, Madison County for many years has failed to carry much weight in statewide governmental positions, compared to neighboring St. Clair County.

At present, two of the top three offices in Illinois are held by residents of Belleville, which is the county seat of St. Clair County.

Republican Dave O'Neal,

former sheriff and pharmacist, is lieutenant governor. Democrat Alan Dixon, former legislator and magistrate, is secretary of state. Both live in Belleville.

The closest Madison County has seemed to come in recent years is occasional consideration of State Senator Sam Vadalabene, Edwardsville Democrat, for possible inclusion on statewide tickets.

George T. Wilkins Sr., Granite City Democrat and a former Edwardsville and Madison resident, served as Illinois superintendent of public instruction from 1958 to 1962.

Usually strongly Democratic, Madison Countians joined with other Illinoisans in November, 1976 in backing James R.

Federal testimony begins

Long-awaited grand jury testimony has begun.

Starting last week, persons familiar with Madison County sheriff deputies' activities have been entering federal jury chambers in Springfield.

Among those observed was Lieutenant Gary Lee Burns, chief of detectives. He is widely regarded as the probable author of a four-page letter that has become one of the issues in the controversy swirling around the sheriff department.

Dated Feb. 1, 1974, the letter alleges payoffs from "all houses of prostitution."

It continues, "I know this because of investigations which I have conducted. I conducted these investigations with the help of Demos Nicholas."

The late Chief Deputy Nicholas had died in the fall of 1973. The letter does not pinpoint the time of the alleged payoff investigations.

"The payoffs we found out were picked up by . . ." the letter relates, naming two persons.

They went to these places on the pretense of investigating payoffs to deputies."

One of the two going to such places "thought the investigation were legitimate. He had no idea of a payoff until one day, and, given him $100, and told him that was his cut of the money.

"(He) brought the money to myself and Demos and turned it over to Capt. Nicholas."

"Nicholas and I would meet, sometimes with . . . and follow (the two persons). We would watch where they went and record the time, date and place."

"We went in some of the places and verified that there were some payoffs made."

"This information was kept by Capt. Nicholas."

"Upon Demos' death, the information and $100 was never found. The $100 was in a white envelope with several reports

13 injured in crashes

Thirteen persons were injured in three separate auto accidents within a five-hour period in the Quad-City area Friday night and early Saturday morning. One of the injured was reported as serious.

Eight of the 13 taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital were admitted and one was transferred later to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis.

John H. Williams, 52, of 2638 Grand Ave., driving a pickup camper unit was southbound on McCambridge Avenue when a car driven by Sandra J. Graham, 36, of 1924 Fourth St., northbound, collided with the Williams vehicle at Fifth Street and McCambridge Avenue at 7:44 p.m. Friday.

Taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital were Williams, who was treated for an abrasion to the right elbow and a laceration to the left hand and released.

His wife, Mrs. Martha Williams, 34, struck her head on the side window and was treated at the hospital for a laceration to the right elbow and piece of glass in the elbow, and admitted.

Joy Williams, 13, was admitted for back pain. Robin Williams, 12, was unconscious when admitted to the hospital. She had an abrasion to the little finger of the right hand and pain in her neck, which was encased with a neck collar.

Another daughter of the Williams, Melanie, 18 months old was treated for an abrasion to the left hand and released.

Sandra Graham apparently was not taken to the hospital, according to a police report. She said she could not recall any details of the accident.

A three-car accident at 9 p.m. Friday at Nameoki Road and East 23rd St. resulted in injuries to four persons, with three admitted to the hospital.

Geographic towing zones

References to specific towing companies in recent articles have related to ten geographic zones disclosed by officials of the Madison County sheriff department.

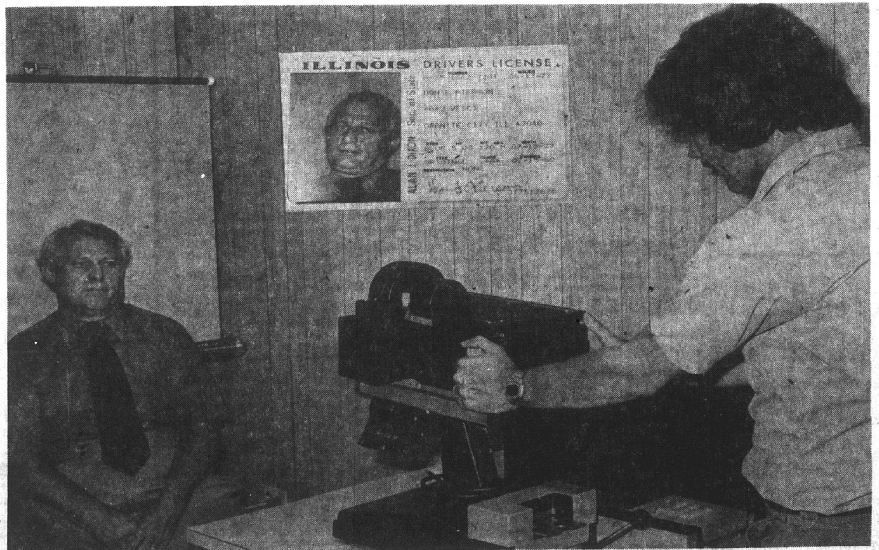

None of the towing firms has been accused, nor is any action by them being criticized or praised in such articles.

The geographic areas were established in cooperation with towing companies to facilitate prompt and skilled response to emergency situations, sheriff department spokesmen have announced.

MAC seizes first place in Inter-City League standings

Mitchell Athletic Club gained sole possession yesterday of second place in Illinois Inter-City Baseball League standings, snapping a deadlock for that position with Mercer Mortuary by winning both ends of a twinbill in Mitchell over J&J Liguors.

Mitchell, managed by Ron Madden, and Mercer, headed by Wendell Corey, had identical 10-4 win-loss records going into yesterday's full slate of doubleheaders, but the Mitchell ballclub won 9-0 and 10-5 while Mercer split winners at Wilson Park with Thomas Mortuary. Thomas won 3-1 and Mercer won 4-1.

League leading Music Room Vans split a twinbill yesterday at Panama, winning 3-2 in 11 innings and then losing to the hosts 14-2.

The East-Alton Brewers won two home, defeating Highland-Pierson 5-2 and 7-4. Former Madison High School pitching standout Jon Henke hurled a one-hitter enroute to beating J&J in the first contest. Now with a 3-0 personal record on the mound, Henke refused to give up a walk and fanned nine opposing batters. He has allowed only two earned runs in three games.

A five-run third inning sparked Mitchell's effort before the club added two runs in each of the fourth and final frames. Bruce Pfeiffer and Ed Pragma started the third with singles. Ricky Hawkes pitched a run-scoring groundout, followed by a runner crossing the plate on a single by Hector Sanabria.

Two runners rounded the bases when Tom Carroll blasted a home run, defeating Sanabria in the next inning and tally in the seventh accounted for Mercer's win. Thomas caught the runner in the third and once in the fifth.

Jack Scarborough scored unassisted in Mercer's first inning following a single, he advanced and went home on two wild pitches.

In the second frame, Dave Schaeke singled, Jeff Scarborough reached on an error, Ken Schaeke reached on a fielder's choice which allowed a run to score, and Pat Peterson singled in two runners.

Peterson started Mercer's seventh with a bunt and was then tagged while attempting a steal. A single by Greenwald, a walk to Hughes and a single by Dave Schaeke led to a run.

Consecutive hits in the third by Thomas' John Pritchard, McDonald, Fossick and Bidler gained the club three runs. Fossick walked in the fifth followed by a single by Gilmore and an error for a tally.

Zehnle wins 50-lap race at Tri-City
 Granite City sportsman stock car division driver Jerry Zehnle had 'things his way' twice last week, winning a feature race last Wednesday at Tri-City Speedway and then capturing a 50-lap mid-season championship main-event Saturday night.

Zehnle beat Pat Walsh and Bill Ried across the finish line on Wednesday in racing program which saw the super-sprint cars compete for a first time this season. Doug Wolfgang of Indiana took top honors on the half-mile track during the sprint car portion of the program, winning a heat race, a trophy dash and then the feature race. Dick Gaines and Tom Corbin finished second and third behind him. Heat race victors were Chuck Amati, Gaines and Butch Wilkinson.

Claiming heat race wins Wednesday in sportsman competition were John Griffin, Chuck Milam and Harold Bryans. Zehnle was never headed Saturday night in the 50-lap victory with St. Louisian Gary Wallace finishing second and Gary Barker third. Last year's winner went to Paul Gebhart and Granite Cityans Lee Gibson and Chuck Milam. Zehnle was the victor, won his first feature race of the season Saturday in late model competition. Kenny Shrum and Len Gittermeier finished in order behind him.

Heat race victors were Shrum, Kevin Gundacker, Will Johnson and Dan Pacevic. Shrum also captured a trophy dash, and Ralph Knox a semi-main event. Wib Spalding of Pontoon Beach and Indiana's Wes Stafford both won heat races in midweek auto racing Saturday night, but Stafford led a 20-lap feature race from the onstart to finish.

Kovarik singled, went to second on an error, advanced on a pass ball and sprinted home on Harvey Breckner's bunt. Petri then singled and scored on Pfeiffer's sacrifice fly.

With two out in the final frame, walks to Kovarik, Breckner and Jeff Scarborough loaded the bags for Mitchell. Kovarik scored on a pass ball, two scored on Hawke's triple and the fourth run scored on a wild pitch.

Young singled and Dan Cook tripled him home for J&J's final tally. Thomas' first-game win over Mercer saw Don Rains go the distance on the mound for the win, and Kirk Champion got the loss.

Thomas jumped out in front 2-0 with two runs in the third inning when Rick Fossick walked, Dan Bidler singled and Dennis Solberg and Jeff Scarborough followed.

Merced got its lone run in the fourth frame when Jim Greenwald collected a baseball but was then put out on a fielder's choice which allowed Bob Hughes to reach base. Singles by David Schaeke and Jeff Scarborough followed.

Thom added to its core with a run in the fifth when Bill McDonald struck out but was then safe at first. When the catcher dropped the ball, McDonald reached home after Fossick drew a walk and Mercer attempted a double play.

Winless Post 435 sets its sights on district contest

Glen Carbon Post 435 seeks its first win of the season at Edwardsville tomorrow in an 8 p.m. District 22 American Legion Baseball League contest after 15 consecutive losses, including six in league competition.

Art Jovi's Legionnaires, sponsored by the Mitchell Athletic Club, dropped a 6-1 decision Friday in a non-league game to Harris Teachers' College, scoring on hits by Bob Batey, Jeff Friedls and Mike Hubbard.

In a league game Saturday, at O'Fallon, the hot ballclub won 4-3 in 11 innings, and in yesterday Marissa edged Post 435 3-2 in an extra inning league game at Mitchell field.

Glen Carbon went ahead 2-0 in the third inning Saturday as Jeff Hamilton reached on an error, Jodi Falloni tripled and Hubbard singled.

Each side scored a run in the sixth resulting in Post 435 maintaining a one-run lead as Richard Schmidt singled, Kevin Hayes walked and Bob Batey hit into a double play which allowed a runner to score.

O'Fallon tied the score with a run in the seventh, and relief hurler Hamilton held the hosts at bay for three innings before an error in the 11th frame ended the game.

Marissa scored twice in the fourth frame and Glen Carbon once in that inning on hits by Schmidt and Hayes.

Both players repeated their performances in the sixth inning to deadlock the score at 2-2 before Marissa scored in the eighth for the win.

Hurt in crash

Dennis Wolf, 17, of 1942 Adams St., was injured in a three-car accident on Missouri Avenue south of West 25th Street last week.

Witnesses reported the car of Kenneth Reeves, 2454 Missouri Ave., slowed to turn into a driveway with the auto of Bert Bell, East St. Louis, behind it when the auto of Gary Wisdom, 19, of 2209 Wilson Ave., allegedly skidded into the rear of Bell's auto, pushing it into Reeves' car.

Wisdom was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

Wolf, a passenger in Wisdom's auto, was taken by Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for cuts to his nose, forehead and to the right side of his head. The cuts were sutured and he was released.

SIUE autonomy urged at hearing

Declaring "in unity, there is strength," President Kenneth A. Shaw of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville urged the Illinois House Committee on Governmental Reorganization, at a hearing Thursday on the SIUE campus, to recommend continuation of the SIU System but to recognize SIUE as an "autonomous" university.

President Shaw was one of several speakers who presented testimony at the House Committee's hearing on the report of the Illinois Task Force on Governmental Reorganization.

The hearing was the seventh in a series of statewide hearings on reorganization. Regarding the SIU System, President Shaw said the Task Force report, which proposes that each "autonomous" university should have its own board of trustees, fails to perceive the status of SIUE and the impact of changes recommended by the report.

Dr. Shaw said if the SIU System were dismantled, leaving SIUE with its own board, "We would be going hat in hand to Springfield as yet another lonely battler for our interests with all the other universities set free from their systems."

On the other hand, the president suggested the situation is confused because the Task Force report regards SIUE as one of two campuses within a system (instead of an autonomous university).

"If the misconception of the report were accepted and we stayed within the system, all the other institutions of the state would be in competition with two superpowers: The University of Illinois and the SIU System."

"In either case, I do not see that the interests of justice, equity, or 'manageability' would be served," Dr. Shaw said.

On the subject of power centralization in the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE), the president said, "The report contemplates power centralization in the IBHE far beyond what was originally conceived for that body. . . The IBHE is itself on record as not being desirous of the additional power the writers of the report would like to vest in it."

Dr. Shaw urged the House Committee to "proceed cautiously, keeping in mind the following priorities:

"The often sound historical and legal bases, for the present state of things, particularly in regard to the State University Retirement System and the University Civil Service

System;

"The primary responsibility of the state to support public institutions of higher education, enabling them to properly respond to the needs and aspirations of the constituencies they were founded to serve; and

"The striking of a decent balance of governance between authority and responsibility at all levels, which is at the heart of humanly successful management in any area of human endeavor."

President Shaw took issue with another statement in the Task Force report which says, "The public institutions of higher education in Illinois are in the executive branch of government."

Quoting from a statement by the Illinois Supreme Court which ruled such a body as the University "functions as a corporation, separate and distinct from the state. . . It is no part of the state or state government," Dr. Shaw said:

"Because we are publicly supported, we stand answerable to not only the governor, but to the legislature, many state and local agencies, and to those citizens who pay for our works with their taxes and have a right to our best efforts in their behalf. We are by no stretch of the imagination an island unto ourselves."

The president also emphasized the "Planned institutional parenthood" of SIUE. He said, "The report speaks somewhat slightly of the present state of circumstances (regarding SIUE) as the result of 'historical accident.'"

"I think that it is hardly fair to those who labored so hard to bring an educational resource to an area long neglected by the state to characterize our birth as pure accident. If there was ever a case of planned institutional parenthood, SIUE is that case."

He pointed out that SIUE was founded to serve the second most populous area of Illinois, "a region which is a true microcosm of the state as a whole except for the fact that certain parts of our constituency have intensely grievous social, economic and cultural challenges. They look to us as a main beacon of hope in meeting them."

Dr. Shaw said the University, in achieving its mission, has found "our strength within a system has generally stood us in good stead, accepting the inevitable tensions the report is so concerned about."

Rejecting as "overly argumentative" the use of the term "conflict of interest" in regard to the report's charge that the SIU System has representation on the IBHE, Dr. Shaw said, "We have been able to survive and prosper reasonably, to a large extent because our system interests had responsible representation on the IBHE. Our system representatives are gubernatorial appointees of probity and distinction. Certainly they stood to secure no personal gain from this alleged 'conflict of interest.'"

In a message explaining the hearing, Gov. James R. Thompson said, "It is time to re-examine what is needed in state government and what isn't, and to make those needed agencies and programs work well. My main concern is that all Illinois citizens have the opportunity to contribute their ideas for a better state government, and that I may draw upon those ideas in proposing my final plan."

per ride during the matinee session, gave the traditional ferris wheel, at left, a constant workout and kept busy the Rock-O-Plane operator, at right, for most of the matinee's three-hour duration. Live musical entertainment Friday and Saturday evening added to the homecoming's carnival atmosphere.

Expand Public Aid hotline to locate absent parents

The Illinois Department of Public Aid is expanding the use of its toll-free hotline, 1-800-252-8903, to receive information relative to the location of absent parents who have abandoned their families, causing them to be supported by public funds, according to Arthur P. Quern, state aid agency director.

Quern said, "The hotline was established in May 1975 to receive information of alleged or suspected fraud in welfare cases and has proved so effective that we have decided to utilize it to help us track down and prosecute absent parents who are not supporting their families."

This hot line is the first of its kind in the country. Only two other states, California and Massachusetts, have similar telephone set-ups, but callers are required to identify themselves in those states, a regulation which reduces usage. In Illinois, anonymity is at the discretion of the caller. In Illinois the whereabouts of approximately 50 per cent of the absent parents is unknown and their families are dependent upon the state Department of Public Aid for financial assistance.

Persons who have any information that could lead to locating these absent parents and forcing them to support their families could be of great assistance in the department's continuing effort to reduce public aid expenditures.

Names, addresses, employers, auto license numbers, social security numbers, and habits are just a few of the items of information which would be helpful if reported to the hot line. All information provided will be held in strict confidence.

The toll-free hot line is available 24 hours a day. Calls are stored on a continuous tape in Springfield. Transcripts of the tapes are reviewed and assigned to skilled investigators for follow-up.

Illinois citizens long have been valuable sources of information involving abuses of the welfare system and absent parents are abusing the system when they fail to financially support their families.

Quern urges all individuals to report "any" information that could lead to locating absent parents so they can be made to meet their legal obligations.

Released on bond

Steve Schaeffer, 21, of 2309 Wilson Ave., appeared at 3:45 p.m. Thursday before Associate Judge A. A. Mateosian and his bond was set at $2,000 on a charge of criminal damage to property. Mateosian then released him on his own recognizance.

Schaeffer allegedly became angry at his house Tuesday, put his fist through the storm door window, punched holes in the interior walls and ransacked several areas of the house.

His mother, Mrs. Mayne Schaeffer, signed a complaint against him.

$5,495 theft at Mitchell home

Items valued at $5,495 were stolen from the home of Robert Orlander, 207 Paradise Lane, Mitchell, during the previous two weeks, the victim reported Thursday.

He said he noticed a few items missing on different days and he said the list grew and then notified Madison County sheriff's deputies.

There were no signs of forced entry. Stolen were three guitars, three wristwatches, a color television, an amplifier, a diamond ring and lady's wedding ring set and two sets of socket wrenches.

Hurt in accident

William Hargrove, 18, of 1832 Ferguson Ave., received treatment for abrasions to the left knee and lower left leg at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 3:45 a.m. Sunday, following an accident at 3:14 a.m., and released.

Hargrove was driving a motorcycle owned by Michael Gilley, 18, of Granite City, westbound on East 23rd Street at Monroe Avenue, and swerved to miss another car, jumped the curb and knocked down a gas meter at 160 East 23rd St.

Gilley, a passenger on the Honda, was not injured, according to the report.

St. Clair

Thompson, Republican landslide winner for the office of governor.

Gov. Thompson consults with such Madison County Republicans as State Representative Everett G. Steele of Glen Carbon, and has worked closely with Sen. Vadala, chairman of the Illinois Senate Committee on Executive Appointments. The governor and legislators cooperated this year on such matters as expansion of Tri-City Port and Madison School District facilities.

In general, St. Clair appears to loom larger than Madison County in its support or "clout" with the governor. He has visited St. Clair often, perhaps partly because it is Lieutenant Governor O'Neal's home area. When he was a candidate for governor, Thompson announced a Madison-St. Clair regional citizen advisory committee that was composed almost totally of St. Clair residents.

Although Sen. Vadala continues to be one of the most effective of all Illinois legislators, Sen. Kenneth Hall of St. Clair succeeded in gaining a Democratic leadership position after extensive maneuvering by various senators over who should become Senate president pro tempore.

In the Illinois House, assistant Republican leaders include Rep. Celeste Stiehl of Belleville and St. Clair County.

In Congress, a big portion of Madison County—including the Quad Cities—continues to be represented by the veteran Armed Services Committee member, Melvin Price of St. Clair County.

Court action

longer than the disbursements from the township collectors. This forces many poorer taxing bodies to sell tax anticipation warrants to live through the period in which the county is holding their money," Hill said.

Confusion over who has the authority to collect taxes stems from the 1970 Illinois Constitution which made counties responsible for collecting taxes, but did not bar the use of township collectors.

When the Illinois Supreme Court ruled the county could not keep a percentage or portion of the taxes to cover the cost of collection, a series of disbursements evolved over who should collect taxes and pay for the cost of collection.

The Supreme Court also ruled that counties denying township collectors the right to collect taxes may be in violation of law, Hill interpreted.

He said he told the collectors they could either file suit to keep the collector's staff from mailing tax bills directly to taxpayers, or they could wait until Musso returns Thursday and demand the tax books from him.

Waiting for Musso to return, however, would risk the tax bills being mailed to taxpayers prior to Thursday.

Hill said the collectors are certain tax bills now are being printed, even though they have been unable to receive a direct answer from county employees to their questions on the status of the tax bills or on Musso's intentions.

Musso could not be reached for comment.

Mrs. Fulton dies at 70

She was born in Collinsville and was a member of an Episcopal Church.

Her husband, George A. Fulton, died in 1954.

Other survivors include one son, George Fulton Jr., of Westland, Mich.; a daughter, Mrs. Eugene (Doris) Pashea of Warren, Mich.; one sister, Mrs. Homer (Leta) Silvey of St. Louis; two brothers, Melburne and Benjamin Schreder, both of Granite City; four grandchildren; and her stepmother, Mrs. Benjamin Schreder of Collinsville.

Funeral services will be held at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday at a Collinsville funeral home. Burial will be in Caseyville Cemetery.

authorities believe the fee should be about $10 per year. Charles May, representative of Controlled Security Systems, said that what was originally proposed as fairly inexpensive security for many homeowners and the elderly has become a very expensive proposition, due to telephone fees, city permits and other factors.

This company is installing the main terminal free of charge in the Granite City Police Department and is providing all of the equipment free, May said his company planned to pay for the expensive equipment through the $5 monthly rental charge each user.

A great deal of time, work and money has already been devoted to the project by Controlled Security Systems, he noted.

The main telephone cable, which is to tie all 600 alarms to the Granite City police station, already has been installed underground to the city hall and the main terminal unit is ready to be delivered, he explained.

If the Granite City Council tomorrow night approves the contract with the Controlled Security Systems, the system could be in operation with 60 days, if other problems, including the proposed high cost of using the burglar alarms, can be worked out, May said.

Meanwhile, some observers feel the cost with May's company may fall victim to disagreements over the related ordinance establishing a permit for burglar alarms. Specific objections have been voiced by council members over the proposed way to enforce the ordinance.

The ordinance specifies, "the police chief, fire chief or city engineer shall have the authority, at reasonable times and upon reasonable oral notice, to enter any premises in the city of Granite City in or upon which alarm systems or alarm businesses subject to this ordinance are located, to inspect the installation and operation of such alarm systems or alarm businesses on such premises."

Several aldermen contend the council can not authorize city officials to enter private property without permission and the ordinance is therefore impossible to enforce.

At the last City Council meeting to approve the contract with Controlled Security Systems were unsuccessful. The council's 11 p.m. time deadline to conduct business ran out before the contract ordinance was presented.

Threatening words written on house

Threatening words were written in three places on the home of Elaine Carver, 2906 rear Madison Ave. Flexiglass was removed from a south window and entry was believed gained.

Written on the plexiglass in two shades of red was on threatening statement signed, "Cold blood." Another saying in purple was on the aluminum siding and was signed the same way.

On the side of the house was written, "You'll die," officers noted. It appeared crayons were used. Nothing is known missing from the home.

Popular classes on solar energy continue at SIU

Solar energy is currently a hot item at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. A non-credit course, dealing with the utilization of solar energy as a heating alternative, has proved so popular with area residents that it has been repeated several times.

The course, offering practical approaches to using solar energy for heating small homes, garages, barns and swimming pools, was offered by SIUE for the first time in January. The response to the course was overwhelming.

An additional class failed to provide for the overflow of students interested in enrolling in the course.

According to Clyde Fisher, assistant director of off-campus programs at the university, it was finally necessary to halt registration.

During the spring quarter, the course in solar energy was offered again. This time, classes were provided at three locations, including the university's two resident centers, Scott Air Force Base and Litchfield, and the main campus at Edwardsville.

Each time, the course has been taught by Pano Kokoropoulos, an assistant professor engineering and technology at SIUE, who places great emphasis on retrofitting existing buildings and "do-it-yourself" techniques.

Students enrolling in the course have come from widely diversified backgrounds, including building contractors, military personnel, service dependents, college students, and faculty, covering an age span from 19 to 60 years.

Married couples taking the course have ranged from middle-aged couples hoping to modify their older homes to young newbies in the process of purchasing or building their first homes, Fisher said.

Fisher feels that the popularity of the solar energy course is due to the public's response to the energy crisis. "Everyone, from the President on down, has been talking about energy problems that we, as a nation, are going to have to face," he said.

"I feel that this particular course is one of the few sources of information being offered on the subject of solar energy," Fisher stated. "It looks like we will be continuing to offer this course this fall and expanding our program to include other energy-related courses," he added.

These jobs involve the use of a wide range of techniques to insure the security of broadcasts.

Highly technical electronic equipment and complex analysis techniques are used by personnel in these fields. Training courses range in length from 17 to 31 weeks. The EW-SIGINT Voice Interceptor assignment requires an additional course ranging from 48 to 60 weeks to acquire competence in a foreign language.

Basic qualifications for these jobs include a high school diploma or GED equivalent, a security clearance, reasoning and verbal ability, perceptual speed, and physical qualifications including normal color vision.

Additional information is available from all Army recruiters.

Driver school tactics challenged by Dixon

Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon has cited the Sears Easy Method Driving School — a licensee of Sears, Roebuck and Co. — on charges of participating in fraudulent practices.

Specifically, Sears Easy Method is accused of making unwarranted financial claims against individuals involved in accidents with its driving school vehicles.

A revocation hearing — where charges will be fully documented — is set for 10:30 a.m. June 23 in Room 1825 of 188 West Randolph Street, Chicago.

As a principal part of the operation, Sears, Roebuck and Co. has been served with a notice of hearing.

"Sears Roebuck must be accountable," Dixon said. "It is imperative that the people of Illinois be assured that well-known, respectable firm is answerable to its customers when that firm uses an unproven vendor to help fill its financial coffers."

"Sears Roebuck is a reputable firm," Dixon continued, "but the consumer comes first. That's been my philosophy for 26 years of public service and it's not about to change."

Sears Easy Method operates its business through Sears' credit department and also offers driving instruction classes in Sears stores.

Easy Method — by contract with Sears — does business as the "Sears Easy Method Driving School," with Sears receiving a percentage of sales.

In the wake of the investigation by the secretary of state's office, Sears ordered Easy Method to quit using the Sears name. That order takes effect June 25.

However, Easy Method reapplied to the secretary of state for a license to operate after June 25, strictly under its own name, dropping the name "Sears."

The secretary of state denied the request of Easy Method.

SIU trustees study prices; OK guidelines

Guidelines for salary and price increases, operation and maintenance of new buildings, and special non-programmatic needs of the Southern Illinois University System for Fiscal Year 1979 have been approved by the SIU Board of Trustees.

Board policy requires the approval of guidelines essential in developing the Resource Allocation and Management Program (RAMP) request which will be submitted to the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE) after final SIU Board approval of the complete RAMP document in September.

The guidelines recommended include a 10.5 per cent salary increase, with a special request to overcome the inequity that exists between University Civil Service employees and State Personnel Code employees.

The inequity that currently exists amounts to 26 per cent at SIU-Carbondale, 12.32 per cent at the School of Medicine in Springfield, and 16.02 per cent at SIU-Edwardsville.

Price increase guidelines include 18 per cent for library books and materials, 9 per cent for equipment, 6.5 per cent for other non-personal services items, 15 per cent for fuel and utility items at SIU-Carbondale and 25 per cent for these items at SIU-Edwardsville.

It was explained that SIUC used coal, while SIUE uses natural gas.

The principal of "full cost recovery" was adopted as a guideline for operation and maintenance of new buildings. At SIUE, the current average cost per square foot on most buildings is $2.87, at SIUC, the cost of $2.55. System officers said $2.20 per square foot, which was recommended by the IBHE for Fiscal Year 1978, is not sufficient to meet the full costs of operating new buildings.

Approval also was given to recommend a special item in the RAMP document for replacement and repair of equipment. System officers said the need for this item increases each year because forced reallocations and inflationary trends over the past five years have eroded the University's equipment base.

A.O. Smith sales nearing record

Profits from continuing operations of A. O. Smith Corp. in the second quarter are expected to be well ahead of a year ago, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, has announced.

The improved second quarter will result in the first half also being ahead of last year, Smith said.

Sales in both the second quarter and first half will also be ahead of 1976 and are expected to be at record levels. Smith estimated profits from continuing operations in the second quarter at between $6.4 million and $6.9 million, or $1.30 to $1.40 per share, on sales of approximately $200 million. In the second quarter last year, earnings from continuing operations were $5.6 million, or $1.15 per share, with sales of $195 million.

For the first six months, Smith estimated earnings from continuing operations of $11.1 million to $11.6 million, or $2.27 to $2.37 per share, on sales of some $385 million. In the first half of 1976, A. O. Smith earned $10.8 million, or $2.22 per share, from continuing operations, with sales of $317 million.

The increase in profits in the second quarter compared to a year ago will result from significantly improved sales and operations in the company's automotive and agricultural product lines.

The firm operates an auto frames manufacturing plant in Granite City. Of particular importance will be the turn around of A. O. Smith Harvestore Products, Inc., a subsidiary, Smith said. A year ago the livestock feeding equipment manufacturing subsidiary was at the break-even point for the second quarter because of low volume, while in 1977 it will be profitable because of increased sales and improved efficiency.

Demand for A. O. Smith automobile and truck frames continues to soar, with second quarter sales of the Automotive division expected to be up some 24 per cent over a year ago. Much of this increase in volume is a reflection of consumer preference for the new "down sized" large cars manufactured by General Motors, for which A. O. Smith is a principal supplier of separate frames.

In addition, sales volume of the division's other product lines, including truck frames, control arms, intermediate size automobile frames and other structural parts are each at or near record levels.

The Reinforced Plastics division of A. O. Smith-Inland Inc., an affiliate, is also rebounding strongly from a year ago, and is expected to report profits in the second quarter compared with a loss a year ago. Demand for the division's reinforced plastic pipe is well above last year's levels.

The Electric Motor division expects higher sales in the second quarter compared with a year ago, Smith said, because of strong demand for motors used in central air conditioning and water systems.

And sales of A. O. Smith's energy-saving water heater line, called the Conservationist, will help boost the Consumer Products division's second quarter volume ahead of last year, Smith said.

Venice police recover body from Mississippi

The body of Scott Bowen, 25, of 5101 Lake Drive, East St. Louis, was recovered at 10:57 a.m. Saturday at the rock dike approximately one fourth of a mile north of McKinley Bridge in Venice.

He was pronounced dead at the scene at 11:10 a.m. by Thomas Scaturro, Madison County deputy coroner. Venice Police Chief Ralph Brawley was at the dike when he saw the body surface and called the Venice Fire Department for assistance.

Mr. Bowen was reported missing at 7:15 p.m. Thursday by David Ray Wallace, 30, of 2241 Fourteenth St., Granite City, and Charles T. Belleville, 26, of 1005 N. 71st St., East St. Louis.

The three had been on the Mississippi River in a boat owned by Wallace when Bowen reported, the boat, traveling south down river, caught in a current and the wind flipped the boat over on its side, throwing Bowen into the water.

The other two men were swimming toward an island and noted Bowen was swimming about 10 to 15 yards behind and to the side of them. Both Belleville and Wallace reached shore about 100 yards apart and saw no signs of Bowen.

After reaching the wrecked boat and noting the motor would not function, Wallace and Belleville began paddling the boat to the Venice shoreline.

Two men in another boat saw them and towed the boat and men to the dock, which took about 45 minutes after the accident, according to the report.

They called Venice police who advised the Coast Guard of the incident and began a search for Mr. Bowen. Officers reported about 45 minutes after the accident, the boat was found on the sides of the boat. The prop of the motor was sheared off.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Laura (Miller) Bowen; two children, Scott E. and Heather Bowen, both at home; Mrs. Bowen's mother, Mrs. O'Fallon; two brothers, Bill Bowen of Fairview Heights, Ill., and Francis Bowen of Granite City; one sister, Mrs. Rudy (Lois) Coppotelli of Washington Park.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at a Belleville funeral home. Burial will be in Lakeview Memorial Gardens, Belleville.

Learning disabilities program in Madison

The Madison Board of Education established a learning disabilities position to work with the primary students and dropped one headstart summer school class at its meeting Thursday night.

George Tyus was hired as the learning disabilities instructor. Tyus has been working for the past two years in that area at the high school in Madison.

Due to a lack of attendance, one head start class has been discontinued and a teacher, Mrs. Janice Worthen, was transferred to the summer school program.

John Henry Williams, president of the Madison Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), requested a meeting with the School Board to discuss the limited summer school program.

Mrs. Donna Woodard, public information coordinator, resigned by letter, stating that the $6,500 salary was low for the job needed to be done.

The board decided to hold a special meeting to re-evaluate the position.

Board Member Sam Dymas asked for a report and account of the monies over the past three years collected in the soda machine at Madison High School. The matter is to be investigated by school officials and a report given at the next regular board meeting.

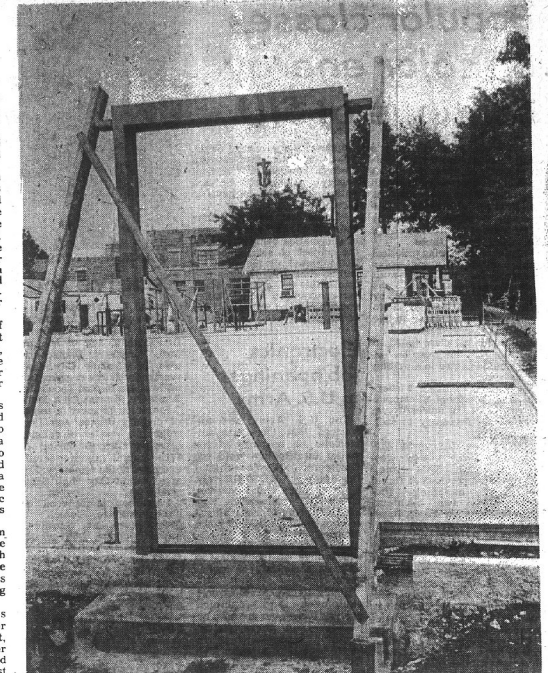

The board accepted the resignations of Miss Rosemary Reading, physical education teacher and coach at MHS who is returning to school, for an advanced degree; William Menig, a shop teacher at the junior high school who is returning to St.eger where he has accepted a teaching position.

The board voted not to hold stated meetings on the first Thursdays of July and January.

Steele's fuel law for trucks to produce $30 million taxes

Legislation requiring out-of-state trucks to purchase fuel and pay motor fuel taxes when traveling on Illinois highways passed the General Assembly Thursday and was sent to the governor for his signature.

The measure (SB 664), sponsored by State Rep. Everett G. Steele (R-Glen Carbon) in the House is expected to bring the state an additional $30 million per year in road revenues.

"Illinois is one of only two midwestern states that do not have a compulsory fuel law for long-haul trucks," Rep. Steele explained during legislative debate.

"Day after day, month after month, out-of-state trucks travel across our state without buying any fuel or paying any motor fuel tax because they fill up before they enter Illinois in other states where fuel is two or three cents cheaper.

Under the legislation, trucking firms headquartered in other states would be required to obtain a permit and make quarterly reports to the state of Illinois, providing evidence as to the amount of fuel purchased and miles traveled in the state.

"Truckers would also be required to keep a log of fuel purchased in addition to information already required by state and federal laws.

A surety bond posted by trucking firms would guarantee that sufficient motor fuel tax was paid to cover fuel needed to transport trucks over miles traveled on Illinois roads, Rep. Steele noted.

Several legislators commented at the House Revenue Committee meeting when the bill was heard that the legislation was "long overdue."

"This bill is particularly important at a time when Illinois roads are in poor shape after a tough winter and there aren't enough funds in the state treasury to provide for the repairs that we need," Rep. Steele said.

In addition to the revenue that the compulsory fuel law is expected to generate, Rep. Steele said it is expected to stimulate more jobs, more sales and tax revenues resulting from increased fuel purchases and related sales of food and garage items.

"A similar compulsory fuel law in Iowa has been in effect for long haul trucks is estimated to bring in an additional $23 million the state treasury," Rep. Steele pointed out.

"And given the fact that Illinois has twice as many roads as Iowa does and the fact that many more cross-country trucks use Illinois roads, I believe Illinois taxpayers can expect to benefit substantially from an additional $30 million annually," Rep. Steele said.

The measure passed the Senate 54-0, and was approved by the House 124-16.

Hits guardrail

Charles Parker, 18, of 525 Tennessee Ave., Mitchell, and a passenger in Parker's car, William Sweet, 19, of Rural Route One, Box 1259, Chouteau Island, were injured when the auto struck the guardrail on Route 151 south of Rock Road at 1:30 a.m. Friday.

Parker said his car's right front tire had a blowout and he lost control. Police noted there were about 100 feet of skid marks before the auto struck the guardrail and the auto then crossed the roadway into the median and returned to the pavement before coming to a stop 150 feet from the guardrail, police reported.

About 50 feet of guardrail was damaged. Parker was charged with reckless driving.

The two occupants of the auto were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where they were released after treatment and x-rays.

LANCE JONES
feature winner

High school senior continues domination of cycle racing here

Lance Jones, 17, of Gadsden, Ala., is set to compete tomorrow evening on the quarter-mile dirt oval at Tri-City Speedway, seeking a second consecutive feature race victory in American Motorcyclist Association-sanctioned competition.

A senior in high school in his home state, Jones took the competition at Tri-City by surprise last year as a "rookie" to professional racing, placing second in the season point standings behind track champion Guy McClure of Texas.

Jones vaulted last season into contention for the 1976 title with six consecutive feature race wins, and nationally earned 52 points, winning 32 of them. Jones' victories in every event he entered here last week, including beating Roy Beary of Belleville and Chris Reitz of St. Louis across the finish line in the main event, have earned the Alabama rider a two-point lead over McClure in Tri-City's point standings, 40-38.

The two riders battled it out in a semi-main event in which Jones edged McClure at the checkered flag, and the battle for first place between the two threatened to continue in the feature race until a seventh-lap accident marred the competition and resulted in McClure being hospitalized.

It is reported the Texan had passed two other riders to gain control of second place and was closing the gap rapidly on Jones, the leader, when McClure's cycle went into a sliding and crashed, resulting in a severe leg injury.

McClure remained hospitalized today and is scheduled to undergo surgery Wednesday to have a steel rod inserted in the upper portion of his leg.

Tri-City American Legion Post 113 was only one pitch away from its fourth consecutive shutout at Edwardsville Thursday night when Edwardsville rallied to tie the game and eventually to win it in extra innings.

The 4-3 Edwardsville victory handed Coach Conrad "Bebe" Champion's Tri-City players their first loss this season and Post 113 now has a 7-1 overall record, including a 4-1 league record.

The Tri-City team appeared to have the game "in the bag" with a 2-0 lead going into the bottom of the seventh inning, the last of regulation play.

Pitcher Doug Rains, who appeared destined to earn the shutout, gave up a one-out walk, which was followed by a strikeout to bring up what could have been the final batter of the game.

Rains hurled two strikes and was one pitch away from victory when the Edwardsville batter got a piece of the ball for a triple.

A walk followed and Rains then gave up a single which drove in two runs and tied the game. The two RBI hit was not a solid hit, but the ball took an erratic bounce off the third base bag and by the time Post 113 regained control, two runners had crossed the plate. An out then sent the game into extra innings.

After an uneventful eighth inning, Post 113 earned a run in the ninth as Danny Schaus singled with two outs and Mike Clark blasted a hit to the top of the left field fence which appeared a certain home-run, but which caught the top of the fence and fell back into the outfield.

The hit gave Clark a double and drove in Schaus to give Tri-City a 3-2 edge. Edwardsville then started the bottom of the ninth with a man on due to a field error. A strikeout followed, but the next batter hit a very carefully placed ball, through the infield defense, stopping Tri-City's hopes of a double play and driving in two runs to win the game 4-3.

Tri-City's first run came in the fourth inning when Clark singled and then reached second on a wild pitch and John Lakin drove him home on a single.

Rains pitched almost the full game, being relieved by Lakin in the ninth inning. The pitchers gave up nine hits and Edwardsville committed two errors. Tri-City's three runs came on 12 hits and three errors were committed.

Post 113 divides four game series with Ohio visitors

Tri-City Post 113's Legionnaires carry a 10-3 overall record into action tomorrow in an 8 p.m. District 22 American Legion game at Cahokia, starting a busy four-game week.

Conrad Champion's charges host Edwardsville at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, travel to Collinsville at 8 p.m. Thursday and then play host to St. Louis St. Catherine at 6 p.m. Friday.

Tri-City played host for four games during the weekend to the Cincinnati Storm Club at GCHS South's Fehling Road diamond, losing twice Saturday to the Babe Ruth League squad by scores of 10 and 4, and then winning twice yesterday 7-5 and 6-3.

Paul Evans suffered his first loss of the season on the mound in Saturday's opening contest, as the visitors scored on a bunt and an error in the fourth frame.

Keith Champion, Mike Clark and Jeff Tretter provided Tri-City's three hits in the game. It took the Cincinnati ballclub eight innings to win the second game as Evans partially compensated for his loss with a game-tying solo homer in the final frame for a 4-4 deadlock.

An extra inning run gave the visitors the win and Post 113 hurler John Lakin the loss. Tri-City stranded 11 runners.

Both sides garnered lone runs in the first frame, Tri-City when Tom Heinrich doubled and Randy Smith and Champion both walked. A double play attempt then resulted in one out, but Heinrich scored.

The local Legionnaires scored twice in the fifth frame for a 3-1 lead on singles by Heinrich, Smith and Champion, a walk to Clark and a single by Evans.

A five-run first inning yesterday sparked Tri-City to victory with Jim Goodyear getting the win and Tom Mahl relieving him on the mound in the fifth.

Singles by Heinrich, Champion, Larry Heagley, Evans, Eldon Warfield and walks to Smith and Clark accounted for the first inning scoring spree.

Cincinnati put a run on the scoreboard in that inning and added two more in the next frame while Tri-City scored one in the second inning on a single by Heinrich, who was driven home by Heagley.

An over-the-fence solo homer by Lakin gave the Tri-City its final tally in the third. Two more runs crossed the plate for the visitors in the fifth.

The slugging momentum by Post 113 carried over into the second game with four runs in the first frame, one in the fifth and one in the sixth.

After Cincinnati gained three runs in the fourth frame on three errors and a hit off hurler Tim Kirksey, Doug Rains improved his win-loss record at 3-1 in relief.

Legion Post 435 drops a 'long tiring game'

Glen Carbon American Legion Post 435 came out on the short end of a 14-9 slugfest against the Southwest Kiwanis Pros baseball team on the baseball diamond at River DesPeres in Missouri Thursday evening. The game, which started at 6 p.m., had to be halted in the sixth inning due to darkness.

Southwest moved into an early lead in the first inning with four runs on three hits, and followed with two runs on two hits in the second and four runs on four hits in the third to lead 10-0 entering the fourth inning.

In the fourth, Post 435 collected seven hits and drove six runners across the plate to get back in the game.

Southwest responded with four runs on two hits to bring its lead after the fourth inning to 14-4. Jeff Hamilton and Terry Page on the mound kept Southwest from collecting any runs after the fourth inning, but the eight run lead at that point proved too much for Post 435 to overcome.

In the top of the sixth inning, Post 435 garnered three runs on four hits, but the game then was stopped due to darkness.

The six-run fourth inning for Post 435 started as Dick Awallt walked and Jeff Fields and Vic Graham singled, loading the bases.

Jeff Hamilton then hit, bringing in two runners, but Hamilton was thrown out on a fielder's choice. With two outs, Terry Page, Richard Schmidt and Kevin Hayes singled to lead the bases again and Bob Batey drove all three in with an easy double, but Batey was thrown out trying to stretch the hit into a triple.

The top of the sixth started with Schmidt getting a single and Page hitting a triple, driving Schmidt across the plate. Batey then singled Page home.

With two outs, Batey stole second and Robert Harris hit a double to bring Batey to the final run of the game. Harris was stranded.

Errors were costly to Post 435 as it committed six to Southwest's three. The Glen Carbon squad led in hits 13 to 11, but stranded too many runners.

Kevin Ragan started on the mound for Glen Carbon but was relieved by Hamilton in the third inning and Hamilton was relieved for the final few batters by Terry Page.

Laetrile—a product of publicity?

To the Editor:
People have missed the underlying significance of the Laetrile issue.

The real problem is what kind of society we live in where a group of entrepreneurs can take a common substance, make it a magnificent product, and peddle it to cancer victims, the most helpless members of our society, by exploiting their natural fear of dying?

If Laetrile gains a respectable place in our society merely on the basis of an effective public relations campaign, then who is to stop other similar exploitations? Will other entrepreneurs be allowed to pre-empt other substances as cures for cancer, disease, or diabetes?

Do we want medicines for life-threatening diseases to be sold without an scientific evidence that they work, supported only by testimonials from people who claim to "feel better?"

(The ones who don't feel better can testify for they are dead.)

Do we want to live in a society that rejects extensive scientific evidence that says indisputably that Laetrile has no effect whatsoever in cancer?

I don't think we want to live in that kind of society. It exposes us all to cross exploitation.

We must distinguish between those treatments that work and those that don't. We must protect the weak and gullible from unscrupulous promoters whose only interest is financial profit. People have the right to live and die free from such exploitation.

We license physicians and insurance sellers and real estate agents. We have learned by experience that by making these people meet minimum standards, we provide protection for all of us and allow us to be more confident in our daily dealings.

Do we really want a lesser standard for cancer treatments? Can any of us afford it?

WAYNE L. PINES, Deputy Assistant Commissioner for Public Affairs, Food and Drug Administration

Media aids county Cancer Crusade

To the Editor:
I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank you for the media aid given to the work and programs of the American Cancer Society.

Through the media of publicity that our programs of service to the cancer patient, public and professional education and research can be brought to the people.

In this capacity you have helped us greatly. As Crusade Chairman of Madison County it was my duty to spearhead the effort during the month of April for funds for the American Cancer Society.

Only through the help of volunteers such as yourself can we be successful. We are still in need of the cure of this dread disease.

On behalf of the Madison County Executive Board of the Madison County Board of Health and we say "Thank you."

LAWRENCE MAHER, Madison County Crusade Chairman

Tax season brought many changes

To the Editor:
Now that the 1977 federal income tax season is over, I want to thank you and members of your staff, for the splendid support you provided the Madison County Service.

Information is used by both government and private organizations to determine the impact of the travel industry on the economy and the impact of data on travel patterns that can be used to improve transportation and the types of lodging.

The law requires that personal information reported to the Bureau of the Census must be held strictly in confidence. Published reports show statistical totals only, and no information identifying individuals or households is released.

increase in standard deduction, curtailment of the former sick pay exclusion, liberalized child care provisions, an expanded and simplified credit for the elderly, and many more.

Because of your generosity and cooperation we were able to provide Springfield District taxpayers with the information they needed to file correct and timely tax returns.

More than 100,000 persons were personally assisted with their tax returns and nearly 200,000 telephone inquiries were handled through our toll-free telephone system during the filing period just ended.

It is obvious to me that the success of our public affairs programs is highly dependent upon the continuing cooperation of the news media. I am pleased with the fine relationship that exists between IRS and the media and look forward to it continuing in the future.

I have prepared an up-to-date list of IRS employees designated to represent me on matters of public information and of general interest. Any time you wish to contact Frank Bryson, our public affairs officer, or one of the office managers, please feel free to do so.

Thanks again for your cooperation.

Speeders a danger on Slough Road

To the Editor:
I am writing this letter in hope that something can be done about a dangerous situation.

My family lives on Slough Road and we are not in Great City Township and we have only the sheriffs to patrol our road.

There are many children on this road, small and large. Our problem is the speeders.

They have led to many accidents with the Missouri people on Sundays and lots of others the rest of the week.

Township dump trucks loaded with brush and now concrete are on our road as a short cut to the dump.

This is like except for the speed at which they travel, I would estimate to be about 50 mph. I don't know how to get my trash across the road. As fast as he was going had this been a child frozen with fright he would have been no way he could have stopped to avoid hitting that child.

We asked for speed bumps last summer but were told they would be dangerous. We did get speed limit and children playing signs at each end of our road but they were promptly torn down by vandals.

Is there nothing that can be done for us? I'm sure that I speak for all the people on our road in saying that we love our children and we are all concerned about the speeding problem is a danger to their safety. Perhaps our new road commissioner can do something to help. I really hope so for the speeders are a danger to all, young and old alike.

The report was based on campaign disclosure forms filed by candidates in the 40 Senate races held last year.

Common Cause said it was the first statewide analysis ever of financing for General Assembly campaigns.

Outlook is foggy for prompt 'sunset' legislation in state

Press-Record Springfield Bureau — Will the sun set on Sunset legislation in the Illinois legislature?

Nobody knows for sure, but the prospects for enactment of a Sunset bill — so promising at the session's opening banquet in January — are now as foggy as a San Francisco morning.

There is no question that the early enthusiasm for Sunset has diminished. It is due to a combination of factors.

There has been confusion due to a multiplicity of bills. There have been clashes of personality. There has been some uncertainty on the part of new Gov. James R. Thompson, once regarded as a strong champion of Sunset.

There has also been a quiet but strong undertone of resistance flowing to the legislature from various agencies that could be affected by a Sunset law.

After all, the purpose of Sunset is to do away with state agencies no longer deemed necessary for the public weal. It means cutting off jobs, angering lobbyists and their relations.

Perhaps most important of all, there appears to be some doubt about the entire concept of Sunset.

Some feel that the cost of setting up bureaucratic machinery to eliminate existing agencies would cost more than would be saved by abolishing them. Others feel that a general reorganization of state government could achieve the same objective as Sunset.

At the session's opening there was a general consensus that the effort to pass a Sunset law would be a bi-partisan one.

The drive was to be spearheaded by Rep. Harold A. Katz, Glencoe, and Sen. Dan Rostenbom, Springfield. He had been a major sponsor, along with House Speaker William Redmond, of Sunset legislation in the previous session.

A bill with Katz as chief sponsor and with co-sponsorship again including Redmond as well as a significant number of Republicans was introduced March 2.

The breadth of the sponsorship is attested to by the fact that it included conservative Republican J. David Jones and liberal Democrat David Robinson, both of Springfield.

But despite the impressive lineup behind the Katz bill, storm signals were already flashing.

A Sunset bill had already been introduced by Pekin Democratic Rep. Richard Luft, who made it clear he resented the special treatment being given Katz.

As often happens in the legislature a majority of members of the House Executive Committee were irritated by the apparent power play on behalf of Katz and refused to send Luft's bill to a subcommittee which would have meant its death.

The Luft bill was advanced to the House floor and passed and now rests in the Senate Executive Committee. In due course the Katz bill followed the same route.

Both the Katz and Luft bills reflect the go-slow attitude on Sunset which has developed during the session.

Instead of providing for a sweeping review of all state agencies to determine which should be eliminated, the two bills confine themselves to a review of regulatory agencies.

Meanwhile, the other Sunset bills, sponsored by Republican Rep. Donald I. Totten of Schaumburg, made their entry into the House. They would enact the basic concept of Sunset which would provide for a review of all state agencies, both in the legislative and executive branches.

Totten's bills have been moved out of committee and onto the House floor, but their passage appears extremely doubtful.

Meanwhile Sunset was further clouded by a late introduction on April 2 of a bill sponsored by Rep. A. C. (Uncle) Bart, Republican, and co-sponsored by GOP House leadership. The bill has the backing of Thompson and is also limited to a review of regulatory agencies.

It currently languishes on the House floor and its passage, too, is doubtful. Democrats control the House, 94 to 83, and it would be unlikely to expect them to turn their backs on Katz and Redmond and "take" a Republican administration bill.

Failure to make any progress this session toward eliminating uneeded state agencies would not only be a disappointment for Katz and others who have pushed the Sunset concept, but would also be regarded as a setback for Thompson.

During the 1976 campaign Thompson took a strong stand in favor of Sunset legislation. In a position paper he stated:

"Sunset legislation is not a panacea; it is a bold concept that if thoughtfully drafted and implemented by an executive and legislature that are sincerely committed to its success, can substantially improve the delivery of government services."

But unless there is some sort of high-level, bipartisan compromise, Illinois will lose an opportunity to see what Sunset could do.

Electricity rate decision recognizes Ill. Power efficiency

No increase in utility costs is ever welcomed, but Thursday's 10.6 per cent boost in electricity rates here is understandable, in view of the changes borne by Illinois Power Company in recent years. A new feature is that those who use only small amounts of power during the summer months will qualify for a special rate.

The Illinois Commerce Commission is right in considering Illinois Power's efficiency, compared with other utilities, in determining how much of a rate increase was necessary.

As ICC Chairman Marvin Lieberman noted, inflexible percentage raises would encourage inefficiency, since they would penalize rather than reward those utility firms that keep operating costs to a minimum — just as governmental administrators too often go on salary and salary by allowing their agencies to grow needlessly.

Illinois Power spends only 74 cents per kilowatt-hour to generate electricity, while Central Illinois Public Co. spends $1.10. Lieberman's comment: "If a company has all these good indicators of efficiency, compared with other utilities, in determining how much of a rate increase was necessary."

As ICC Chairman Marvin Lieberman noted, inflexible percentage raises would

South student chosen to represent Illinois

Miss Jane Matosian of Granite City was chosen Saturday as one of two girls from Illinois Girls' State to attend the Girls' National program in Washington, D.C. next month.

She is the first young woman from this area to be selected for the honor, which is accorded to two high school junior students from among 525 girls attending the annual Girls' State program sponsored by the Illinois Department of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Miss Matosian, daughter of Judge and Mrs. A. Andrews Matosian, 2836 State St., attended the Illinois Girls' State with Miss Jane Marshall of Granite City. Both were sponsored by Tri-City American Legion Auxiliary Unit 113.

In Washington, Miss Matosian and the other state representatives will visit President Jimmy Carter at the White House. Girls' State is scheduled July 9 to July 16.

At the state program, which concluded Sunday, Miss Matosian was elected to the office of secretary of state.

South student chosen to represent Illinois

Those attending Girls' State live in cities (groups), form two non-partisan political parties, and hold conventions, elect delegates and elect officers. They also perform other duties pertaining to various public affairs.

Miss Dorothy Hinson of Madison, who serves as a lecturer-instructor at Girls' State, said today the national representatives are selected for such qualities as good citizenship, leadership, and conduct while living in the mythical state.

The girl is nominated by the counselor of her city. She is interviewed and evaluated by other counselors before her selection is confirmed, she explained.

"We are very proud of her," Miss Hinson commented.

Marine Robert Nixon honored

Sgt. Robert L. Dixon of Venice is evidently an outstanding Marine. So much so, that he's been selected as Marine of the month for June at the Marine Corps Development and Education Command at Quantico, Va.

Lt. Gen. J. C. Fegen said during the ceremony that, "Sgt. Dixon is one of the strongest candidates ever selected."

Dixon, an artilleryman at the Fire Direction Center, Artillery Demonstration Unit, TBS, at Quantico, prepares computer data for firing and plotting locations on maps. He also determines range, elevation and deflection of fire.

"I go out to the field once a month," said Dixon. "I spend about two days out there and don't go out again until the following month." In the mean time he's up to his ears in paperwork.

The 20-year-old native of Venice is a graduate from Assumption High School.

"Originally I had planned to go to college," said Dixon. "After high school I worked in construction for three months, then in July 1975, I decided to join the Marine Corps."

While in the Marine Corps, Dixon has attended the six week Artillery Survey Specialist School at Fort Sill, Okla., where he topped his class of 54 students. He also received two letters of appreciation from the school.

Sgt. Dixon was meritoriously promoted to lance corporal in June 1976 and to corporal in November 1976 and most recently to sergeant.

Though Dixon has conducted himself as an outstanding Marine, he is not career minded.

"I'll be getting out of the Corps in July 1978," said Dixon. "I plan to attend Southern Illinois University. I hope to obtain a degree in engineering."

In addition to a meritorious promotion, Dixon received four passes to Kings Dominion; a weekend for two at the Tia Bridges Marriott, Washington, D. C.; dinner for two at King George I Restaurant, Lake Ridge Shopping Center; $25 account at the MCB Federal Credit Union; an NCO Leadership Handbook; a Marine of the Month engraved plaque and a Certificate of Commendation.

"I'm going to have a fun weekend," Dixon said.

Backs elected at Boys' State

Ron Backs of Granite City was elected to the office of city chairman of the Federalist Party at the 41st annual session of the Illinois American Legion Premier Boys' State, held at Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, this month.

Backs is the son of Robert and Jewell Backs, 17 Bermuda Lane, and a senior at Granite City High School South. Boys' State is a compressed one week course in practical civics. Its purpose is to help to develop in the youth of today constructive attitudes toward the American form of government.

Low cost Long Distance for night people.

One of the most overlooked bargains around these days is the nighttime rate for Long Distance.

By dialing direct and calling between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m. weekdays you can save up to 60% from daytime rates.

And it's not just inexpensive—it's practical, too.

For example, night people can dial California at 11 p.m. and it's only 9 p.m. out on the Coast.

While early risers can dial New York at 7:55 a.m. and it's already 8:55 Eastern time.

Imagine, saving 60% any weekday just by calling after 11 p.m. or before 8 a.m. (Discounts are smaller on calls within Illinois and to Alaska and Hawaii.)

And this is only one of many money-saving ideas you'll find in our new booklet, "How to Save Money on Long Distance."

You'll also find rate charts for calls within Illinois, out-of-state rate charts, an area code map, how to avoid charges for bad connections and wrong numbers, information about other bargain calling times, and much more.

New acting director of housing at SIUE named

The appointment of Margarette Bohannon as acting director of housing at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, effective July 1, was announced Thursday by James F. Metcalf, acting vice-president for business affairs at SIUE.

The appointment, subject to ratification by the SIUE Board of Trustees, will temporarily fill the position which will be left vacant July 1 by William H. Hall, who has been director of Housing since February 1971. Metcalf said a search has been launched for a person to occupy the position permanently.

Hall has accepted the position of director of administration and operations for housing at Ohio State University. A native of Joliet, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees at SIUE-Carbondale and was business manager of West Campus housing on the Carbondale campus before joining the housing staff on the Edwardsville campus in 1969. He was named acting coordinator of housing in August 1970.

Miss Bohannon, who has been associated with the Housing Office at SIUE since 1971, received bachelor's degrees in human services and special education and a master's degree in human services—counselor education from the University. She worked as a resident manager in single student housing in 1974-75, later became a resident manager in married student housing, managing 15 buildings, and currently serves as resident life coordinator, managing the bus service, summer children's program, advising the Tower Lake Area Council and performing other duties of the position.

A participant in numerous regional, state and national workshops on housing, personnel, organizational development, human relations, mental health and services to the handicapped, Miss Bohannon also has had work experience with the Beverly Farms Foundation, a private home and training center for the mentally handicapped; the Madison County Mental Health Clinic; and the ABCVD Referral Center at SIUE.

In 1973, she was associated with the Western Interstate Commission on Higher Education Summer Mental Health Program at the Fort Logan Mental Health Center in Denver.

Driver comments sought

Drivers in other metropolitan areas have experienced traffic jams of up to six hours. Will this even happen in this area? What can we do today to prevent known problem areas from worsening and becoming sources of major traffic tie-ups in the future?

The Transportation Task Force of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council would like to know the type and location of traffic problems this metropolitan area drivers are having.

These would include unsynchronized traffic signals, unnecessary stop signs, street improvements and other such traffic stoppers. Studies show that start-stop driving and needless idling cause increased fuel consumption and air pollution. In the interest of energy conservation and improved air quality the task force, through driver comments, will be identifying traffic flow problem areas in the region.

A seminar is being planned through which areas of concern will be addressed by representatives from city and state traffic and highway departments.

Those who know of specific area traffic problems, comments to: Ivanka Flor, East-West Coordinating Council, 112 N. 4th Street, St. Louis, Mo. 63102, by June 30.

Air school's air problems

Both praise for and frustration with federal programs for education in Illinois were voiced by Jack Witkowski, chairman of the Illinois State Board of Education, and Joseph M. Cronin, Illinois state superintendent of education, last week at a press conference at the Hall of States in the nation's capital.

"We've had nine public hearings throughout Illinois on expiring federal legislation," Witkowski said, "and we're meeting today with an Illinois Congressional delegation and federal education officials to report what our people are saying about the programs."

The hearings in Illinois, co-sponsored by 17 educational organizations, focused mainly on Title I, aid to disadvantaged students, impact aid, adult education and the subject of "block grants."

"In Illinois, more than 30 school districts, including Chicago, Decatur, Rockford and Peoria, are engaged in desegregation activities," Cronin reported. "Title I regulations which do not allow services to follow the child cause hardships when children are reassigned to eliminate segregation."

He noted that many school districts claim also that the Orshansky formula defining economic disadvantage under Title I does not accurately portray the degree of poverty in the districts and that the Title I funding level is underfunded.

"Chicago has 200 eligible Title I centers," Cronin pointed out, "but available dollars only support services to 140 of them, and to one-fifth of the total Title I eligible students. Federal funds provide program dollars for only 36 per cent of Illinois' total Title I eligible students."

Adult education was widely praised at the hearings, Cronin said, and produced more testimony than any other topic covered. Nearly 430,000 Illinois adults have benefited from federal adult education assistance in the past two years.

"The major problem cited was inadequate funding of the program," he reported.

Mixed feelings surfaced about consolidation—as achieved by Title IV of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act—or "block grants."

Testimony at the hearings by project directors and some school administrators voiced skepticism about removing categorical emphasis of programs such as Title I and the new Educate All Handicapped Children act.

Other administrators, however, expressed preference for the block grant approach that encompasses four or five flexible categories rather than 30 or more separate federal programs.

Installations while living elsewhere were denied to school districts, 173 Illinois school districts would lose approximately $20 million—at a time when Illinois school finances are pinched at both the local and state level," Witkowski said.

Other concerns with federal programs on the Illinois report agenda at meetings with federal legislators and officials today included:

(1) School food waste and waste to eliminate that waste.

(2) Requirements for maintenance of effort in local funding even as declining enrollments, unemployment and inflation curtail school budgets.

(3) More stringent requirements for vocational education matching funds than for other federal programs.

(4) Federal data collection requirements.

"We're not here to say to our legislators and education officials that we just need more money and less regulation," Witkowski said, "although a better balance between the two we do believe should be struck. But we do have some constructive suggestions, complaints and words of great appreciation for federal programs that affect the education of Illinois school children."

"We think that our federal-state-local partnership efforts can make those programs even more effective, and we want today to communicate those ideas."

The State Board of Education chairman and state superintendent of education were joined in the meetings with representatives from the 17 co-sponsoring organizations.

When $4 billion was appropriated by the federal government this year for a second round of public works projects, it was announced that projects advanced in the first program would be given priority in determining the new grants. While the city failed to receive all of the $1.8 million sought for a new building, "the money which we will receive may be used for partial payment on new projects," the mayor explained, noting that it may be possible to scale down the construction of a new police station. He noted that plans have been under study since 1972 for construction of a new jail and police station. Daktar movie at Madison Baptist Daktar is the dramatic true story of Dr. Vigeo Olsen's surgical, diplomatic and wartime adventures during the bloody birth of Bangladesh.

With few facilities and often using crude home-made instruments, this compassionate missionary doctor from Nebraska saved countless lives through skilled surgery and masterful treatment. Today, in Bangladesh, hundreds of lives whose lives would otherwise have been snatched away by bullets, bayonets, cholera, typhoid and a hundred other death-dealing diseases.

Daktar, the story of Dr. Olsen, is more than medicine. It is also the thrilling account of a soul-winning ministry of Herculean proportions.

See this movie at the First Baptist Church of Madison on Sunday, June 26, at 7:30 p.m., the Rev. Paul J. Davis, said.

Miss Marilyn Hull wed at St. Joseph Church

St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding Saturday morning of Miss Marilyn Hull, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde T. Hull, 2608 Cayuga Ave., and Dewey Bell, a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bell, 3500 Highway 111, Granite City.

Bouquets of summer flowers in various hues adorned the altar and burning tapers in branched candelabra illuminated the sanctuary for the double ring ceremony performed at 11 a.m. by Father Peter J. Donohoe.

Mrs. Clara Judd presided at the organ and accompanied Mrs. Ann Pieper as she sang, "Ave Maria." "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" and "Pence On Earth."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the former Miss Hull selected a full length silk organza gown featuring a high neckline of Venice lace, sheer yoke and fitted bodice accented with lace motifs.

The long tapered sheer sleeves were enhanced with a lace motif at the wrist and lace cuffs. Matching lace appliques enhanced the semi-straight skirt and chapel train.

She wore a lace Juliet cap to hold in place her lace bordered veil of bridal illusion and she held a cascade of white gardenias intermingled with green waxy lily.

Maid of honor, Miss Angela Hull, a sister of the bride, wore a chiffon over satin mint green sheath dress featuring a chiffon ruffled collar and capelet sleeve.

The ruffled hemline of the skirt was caught with a rose at the back waistline to create a softly flowing train.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. Roland Lee, Miss Julie Statz, a niece of the groom, Mrs. Jerry Varady, the groom's sister, selected identically designed gowns in rainbow colors, canary yellow, melon rose and sky blue, respectively.

Both flower girls, Carrie Jean Bohnenstiel and Arney Lynn Bohnenstiel, nieces of the bride, were dressed in bright green knit frocks.

Their dresses were designed with short puff sleeves, bodices of white lace and full skirts terminating with a gathered flounce. Each held a basket of white daisies, and wore tiny daisies in their hair.

The adult attendants also wore a cluster of daisies in their hair and each carried a summer bouquet of white daisies.

Christopher Lee served as the ringbearer.

Jerry T. Hull, a brother of the bride, attended the groom as best man. John Bohnenstiel, a brother-in-law of the bride, Frankie Puleo, a nephew of the groom, and Joe Thompson, were groomsmen.

Escorting the guests to their seats were Bill Hanks and Tommy Puleo, another nephew of the groom.

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. Bell received guests at a reception held at Holy Trinity Hall, Madison. A brother-in-law and sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Statz entertained members of the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner in their home, 105 Creekside, Collinsville.

Mrs. John Bohnenstiel, a sister of the bride, wore a brown and white print gown, and attended the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hull selected a formal length peach tulle gown worn with a matching full length coat of peach lace, and silver accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Bell was attired in a floor length jacket and dress ensemble in lilac knit, with white accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Both young people are graduates of Granite City High School South. The bride was employed in the office of Smith Scharf Paper Co., St. Louis. The groom is also a graduate of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, and was a former teacher at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church. He is presently stationed in San Francisco, Calif., where he is serving with the U.S. Army.

They will reside in San Francisco.

School supply bids auto-ized

A new van-minibus to transport special education students was among the bids opened last week at the Venice School Board meeting.

The board also authorized bid calls be published for several other items, including:

- Meat, milk, eggs and canned goods for the cafeteria;
- gasoline and fuel oil; steam line repair at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center; an automotive shop facility, design and construction.

New roof on the 1954 addition of the Venice Grade School, central office and bus garage; carpeting on classroom floors at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center; three buses for the Venice-Lincoln Center; and bus transportation, daily and extra curricular, for Venice pupils.

Two firms submitted bids on the van-minibus, to replace a 1971 Dodge, 12-passenger van used to transport special education pupils and for some extra-curricular events when only a small number of students is involved.

Vandavia Bus Lines' bid specified a 1977 minibus, 16-passenger size, with a 350 V-8 engine, power steering and power brakes for $10,925 cash, or $9,275 with trade-in. Neither the make of vehicle nor delivery date was quoted in the bid.

The second bid from South County Coach Sales, St. Louis, itemized a 1978 Bluebird minibus, 18-passenger, with a 350 V-8 engine, power steering and power brakes for $9,450 cash, or $7,700 with trade-in.

A representative from the South County firm attending the meeting, answered questions posed by members and offered to make a vehicle similar to the one in the bid to demonstrate to the board. The company has none in stock at the present time, he said.

Johnson, who did not sign the legal complaint, told the board he has been the subject of harassment since the suit was filed.

"I came here tonight to see where it is coming from, just where these rumors about me are coming from," Johnson said.

Most board members professed having no knowledge of the rumors.

Arrest driver; 4 charges filed

David Young, 18, of 5141 Old Alton Road, faces four charges after his auto allegedly fled from a police car at 3:25 a.m. Friday.

Young was arrested Lynch Avenue and Sara Street and was charged with fleeing from police, speeding and the stop sign violation.

While looking Young at the police station, officers alleged finding an oblong metal container in his left front trousers pocket which contained five aluminum packets of brown powder, resembling the chemical substance TNC. He also was charged with unlawful possession of a controlled substance.

Insects cause vine wilting

By CHRIS DOLL
Extension Garden Adviser
Cucumber vines that suddenly wilt and die are probably victims of insect feeding. Insects can be the direct cause of wilting in the case of the squash vine borer or the indirect cause in the case of cucumber beetles.

The cucumber beetles, both striped and spotted, may transmit bacterial wilt from plant to plant as they feed. This disease is a widespread bacterial disease easily spread by the insects. There is no cure for the bacterial wilt, but preventative programs of insect control are suggested.

If contaminated insects die before feeding, the disease will not spread. The control for the insect is repeated spray or dust with carbaryl (Sevin) at five to seven-day intervals. Harvesting may begin 24 hours after treatment.

The squash borer also would be controlled by the carbaryl treatment. If one of these pests cause dying vines, their tunnels can be found by examining the vines.

Hopefully, all vines won't die and gardeners can harvest from healthy plants. Where extended or later harvest is desired, plant some more cucumbers now and harvest in 50 to 60 days. It requires good seed, cultural practices, and good weather to be successful at this time of the year, with consistent insect control being most important.

Everyone talks about tomato diseases but usually not until it's too late for best control practices. Disease control involves prevention rather than a cure. Fortunately, 1977 has been so dry that few disease problems have developed and control has been easy.

Prevention practices involve selection of wilt-resistant varieties, and a control program for leaf and fruit diseases. Wilt, both verticillium and fusarium, are soil-borne fungus diseases that infect many of the old-line varieties such as Beefsteak, Ponderosa, etc.

Some of the good new hybrids such as Jetstar, Supersonic, Better Boy, etc., have resistance. If the resistant varieties were planted, no problems should exist. If susceptible plants were planted and wilting begins, there is no control.

For leaf and fruit disease control, dust or spray with maneb, ferban, or Zineb. These materials are found in many of the tomato sprays or dusts in garden centers. Use according to the directions on the package.

Many peach trees show wilting terminals—the result of insect feeding. The insect causing this injury is the Oriental Fruit Moth, but it's the larval stage causing the injury.

Newly hatched larvae bore into succulent, fast-growing terminals near the end, and tunnel down the center of the twig. As the larvae mature, the end of the twig wilts. By the time a gardener sees the injury and looks for the worm, it has crawled out and pupated.

If the life cycle is not interrupted, another outbreak will happen in about a month. The twig injury causes some stunting of the tree, increased branching, and wormy peaches when they attack the fruit. They may also attack apricot, plum and cherry trees.

Control is through regular spray programs of Charged as fugitive

Winfred Reed Cooper, 27, East St. Louis, who allegedly escaped from San Quentin, Calif., and committed two burglaries here, appeared before Associate Judge A. A. Matosian in Granite City at 4:20 p.m. Thursday and bond was set on four charges at a total of $105,000.

Cooper is accused of being a fugitive from justice, two counts of burglary and aggravated battery.

He was arrested by two security guards in the office of the Bell Telephone Co. garage at 2241 Adams St., early June 16 after breaking in.

The guards were struck with a hammer during the arrest, but had a man in custody when police arrived.

Cooper is charged with

The court has authority in this proceeding to take from you the custody and guardianship of the minor, and to appoint a guardian with power to consent to adoption of the minor.

Now, unless you appear at the hearing and show cause against the petition, the petition may be taken for confessed as against you, and each of you, and an order, judgment or decree entered.

Automotive shop building proposed at Venice center

By VALERIE EVENEDEN

Press-Record Staff Writer
Construction of a metal building to house the automotive training area at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center will be paid for with funds provided through the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) and the Federal Adult Education Program, the Venice School Board.

The Venice School District requested a meeting with board members of the personnel committee to review updating the jobs of specific employees at the center.

He also offered to "sit down with anyone who doesn't understand the operation of Venice-Lincoln Technical Center and explain its origin and function as part of the Venice School District."

Rankin noted that someone had written the Illinois Attorney General's office asking for information on the board's authority over the center.

The inquiry was referred to the State Office of Public Instruction which, in turn, had passed along the inquiry to the administrator.

The former Lincoln Grade School on South 4th Street, Venice, became the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center in the mid-1960's when the Venice School District totally integrated all pupils in classes of the main school building on Broadway.

During the past 10 years, the adult vocational education school has become a showcase throughout the state for new concepts in adult education. Many area residents have benefited from its standard curricula and new pilot programs.

The building courses are financed solely with federal and state funds, with the initial expense paid by the state, which is reimbursed from the appropriate federal or state agency.

ORDINANCE NO. 835
AN ORDINANCE ADOPTING REGULATIONS FOR THE
CONSTRUCTION, SUBSTANTIAL IMPROVEMENT, SUBDIVISION
OF LAND, PLACEMENT OF MOBILE HOMES OR OTHER DEVELOPMENT IN RELATION TO FLOOD
HAZARD AREAS.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Madison, Illinois, as follows:

SECTION 1. PURPOSE
The purpose of this ordinance is to avoid the hazards to persons and damage to property resulting from flooding and to comply with the Rules and Regulations of the National Flood Insurance Program as promulgated by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Insurance Administration as provided in the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Register, Vol. 41, No. 207, Tuesday, October 16, 1976, as amended, and which are hereby adopted by reference, and filed in the office of the city clerk, pursuant to Illinois Law and Illinois Revised Statutes Chapter 24, Section 11-30.2.

SECTION 2. CONFLICTING LAWS REPEALED
The provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed as additional requirements to minimum standards required by other ordinances of the city. In case of conflicting requirements the most restrictive shall apply.

SECTION 3. DEFINITIONS
For the purpose of this ordinance, the following definitions are adopted:

A. "Development" means: any man-made change in improved or unimproved real estate, including but not limited to construction of or substantial improvements to buildings or other structures, the placement of mobile homes, mining, dredging, filling, grading, paving, excavation or drilling operations.

B. "Flood" or "Flooding" means: a general and temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of normally dry land areas from the overflow of inland waters, or the unusual and rapid accumulation or runoff of surface waters from any source.

C. "Base flood" means: the flood having a one per cent chance of being equaled or exceeded in any given year. The base flood is also known as the one hundred (100) year flood.

D. "Base flood elevation" means: the elevation in relation to Mean Sea Level of the crest of the base flood.

E. "Structure" means: a walled and roofed building including a gas or liquid storage tank that is principally above ground, as well as a mobile home and a prefabricated building.

F. For the purpose of this ordinance it does not include recreational vehicles or travel trailers.

G. "Substantial improvement" means: any repair, reconstruction, or improvement of a structure, the cost of which equals or exceeds fifty per cent (50 per cent) of the market value of the structure either before the improvement or repair is started, or if the structure has been damaged, destroyed, or deteriorated, the damage occurred. The terms does not, however, include either: (1) any project for improvement of a structure to comply with existing state or local health, sanitary, or safety code specifications which are solely necessary to assure safe living condition; or (2) any alteration of a structure or site documented as deserving preservation by the Illinois Department of Conservation or listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

SECTION 4. FLOOD HAZARD BOUNDARY MAP

Inspector shall not issue such permit for any construction, substantial improvement, or other development that does not comply with the provisions of this ordinance or that has been denied a permit required by the Federal or State law including Section 404 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, 1972, 33 U.S.C. 1354.

SECTION 6. APPLICATION

B. The Building Inspector shall require certification from a registered professional engineer or architect that floodproofing methods are adequate to withstand the flood depths, pressures, velocities, impact and uplift forces, and other factors associated with the base flood.

C. The application shall also contain information or certification as reasonably may be required by the Building Inspector in order to determine eligibility for permits or to enforce the terms of this ordinance.

SECTION 7. BASE FLOOD ELEVATION

The city council shall obtain, review, and reasonably utilize Base Flood Elevation data available from federal, state, or other sources until such time as such data has been received from the Federal Insurance Administration. Base flood data received from the Federal Insurance Administration shall take precedence over data from other sources.

(IV) Be placed to prevent flotation, collapse, or lateral movement of the structure due to flooding.

(V) Be anchored according to the following specifications:

a. over-the-top ties shall be provided at each of the four corners of the mobile home, with two additional ties per side at intermediate locations and mobile homes less than fifty (50) feet long shall require one additional tie per side;

Provided, that if the Base Flood Elevation data is not available the applicant shall compute and provide this information for each lot or platted parcel greater than fifty (50) lots or five (5) acres, whichever is lesser.

SECTION 12. FLOODWAY RESTRICTIONS

All new construction, substantial improvement, subdivision of land, placement of mobile homes, construction of utilities, or other development that would result in any increase in the level of the base flood shall be prohibited in the Floodway.

SECTION 13. WATER-COURSE STANDARDS

The Building Inspector shall notify adjacent communities and the Illinois Department of Transportation, Division of Water Resources, and the Federal Insurance Administration prior to any alteration or relocation of a watercourse. The flood carrying capacity within the altered or relocated portion of any watercourse shall be maintained.

SECTION 14. REPORTS AND RECORDS

A. The Building Inspector shall provide the city council, the Illinois Department of Transportation, Division of Water Resources, and the Federal Insurance Administration with an annual report on forms as provided by the city by the Federal Insurance Administration.

MRF opens 9th season Wednesday

The Mississippi River Festival will begin its 1977 concert season, the ninth year since, Wednesday night at SUE, featuring Dan Fogelberg.

Fogelberg will appear with special guest Foli's Gold at the Festival site on the campus. "We're looking forward to a good season of family entertainment," says Festival Director Lyle Ward, "with people like Fogelberg, Jackson Browne, Bob Hope, Pete Seeger and Arlo Guthrie, Barbershop Harmony Night and many more for our contemporary entertainment series, as well as our other kinds of entertainment."

He pointed out that the 1977 MRF season has 46 dates scheduled, ranging from the contemporary acts through appearances by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, three evenings of performances by dance companies, seven evenings of chamber music, a film series and four evenings of theater.

"In keeping with our long-established policy of offering something for everyone, we have as wide a range as ever," said Ward. "We have expanded our chamber series as well as the dance and theater, because of good response to those types of evenings last year."

"After the success of Julie Harris in 'The Belle of Amherst' last summer, for instance, we have arranged for two plays this summer," Ward explained. On Aug. 11, the Festival will have Viveca Lindfors and Christopher Tabori in "My Mother, My Son," in the Communications Building Theater on the SUE campus. And on Aug. 18, 19 and 20, Sir Michael Redgrave will be starring in "Shakespeare's People," at the Festival site.

The dance companies slated to appear are: the Phyllis Lamit Dance Company, July 12 at the Communications Building Theater; the Nikolaia Dance Theater, July 30 at the Festival site; and the Kathryn Posin Dance Company, in the Communications Building Theater, Aug. 6.

The Contemporary Series, which opens the season on June 22, has Fogelberg the first evening, followed by Die Clark's Good Ol' Rock N' Roll June

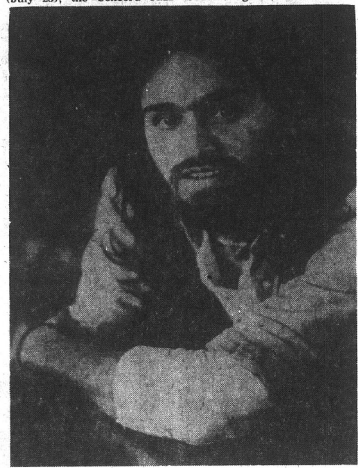

24, Box Scaggs (June 29), The Sylvers (July 1), Bob Hope (July 8), Roy Ayers and Ubiquity (July 13), The Fred Waring Show (July 15), The Ozark Mountain Daredevils (July 20), the Concord Jazz

Festival (July 22), Barbershop Harmony Night (July 23), Renaissance and Jean Luc Ponty (July 27), George Benson (July 29), Pete Seeger and Arlo Guthrie (Aug. 3), the Mel Tillis Show (Aug. 5), Kris Kristoferson and Rita Coolidge (Aug. 10), the Big Band Sounds with Tex Beneke and His Orchestra (Aug. 12), and Jackson Browne (Aug. 17).

"We're finding that many of these shows are already beginning to sell out the tent," Ward advised patrons. "Jackson Browne, Dan Fogelberg, Bob Hope, and some others are already approaching that point, so we might advise those who are interested in the Contemporary Series to get their tickets early."

During the six appearances by the St. Louis Symphony, starting with a special July 2 performance of the "1812 Overture" there will be a number of specials, including an evening with Henry Mancini as conductor (Aug. 14), and an evening that is a Children's Festival (July 10), with Jack Carney of KMOX-radio narrating "Peter and the Wolf."

Climatrol
$829.95*

REG. PRICE $919.95
Price includes: Rotary compressor, outdoor condensing unit, matching evaporator, "A" coil, 15 ft. pre-charged refrigerant tubing, deluxe heat/cool thermostat.

Climatrol has been in the heating/cooling business for 114 years. You've got to figure that anyone who's stayed around for that long has a pretty good product. As a Climatrol dealer, we've always had the kind of equipment people want... at a price they can afford.

We'll match our competitive prices against anyone's, because we can sell you a system that is exactly measured to suit your home's needs, not oversized or undersized.

What's more, we protect your investment. We back up our whole-house cooling with installation by our own factory-trained experts who guarantee top performance from your equipment... because we know that the best system works poorly if it's installed improperly.

As for the rare instance when your system might need servicing... the Climatrol family takes care of its own. Our service crewmen know Climatrol equipment best and are prompt about responding to your call. For a free whole house air conditioning estimate—call us today.
